CQG and Calyon Financial Expand Trade Routing to Asia Pacific

Chicago, IL, November 12, 2007 – Calyon Financial and CQG, Inc. today announced their partnership to provide trading access to nine Asian futures exchanges.

The partnership pairs CQG's superior market data delivery and innovative trading front-ends with industry leading Asian exchange access provided by Calyon Financial's Frontiers trading system. Customers can utilize CQG's platforms to trade futures on the Hong Kong Exchange, Korea Exchange, Korea Stock Exchange, Osaka Stock Exchange, Singapore Exchange, Taiwan Futures Exchange, Tokyo Financial Exchange, TOCOM, and Tokyo Stock Exchange.

"As a leading global brokerage firm, Calyon Financial is constantly pursuing solutions that provide our customers with top quality service and accessibility to all markets," said Leslie Sutphen, Calyon Financial's Global Head of eBrokerage Strategy. "We're pleased to partner with CQG on this project which will provide our customers with enhanced Asian market access."

CQG's Integrated Client offers advanced trading tools, including exclusive TradeFlow™ charts and studies, DOMTrader and Order Ticket trading interfaces, and smart order functionality. CQG's latest suite of analytical tools leverages the transparency of today's electronically-traded markets.

"The combination of CQG's trading front-end and high performance market data delivery with Calyon Financial's Frontiers gateway provides a powerful solution for our mutual customers," said Rod Giffen, CQG's Head of Business Development.
