Patrick J. Kenny Named Vice President at CQG

Denver, CO, July 8, 2010 – CQG, Inc., a leading provider of financial market data and trading software, announced today that Patrick J. Kenny has joined the company as Vice President, Client Relationships.

“We are extremely pleased Pat decided to join the team,” said Rod Giffen, CQG’s Global Head of Sales and Support. “He brings a wealth of experience in our business and a great reputation for taking care of his customers.”

“I am very excited to join CQG and look forward to the valuable opportunity of growing and strengthening client relationships for the company,” said Kenny, Vice President at CQG.

Kenny has been a member of the Chicago Board of Trade since 1983, most recently serving as Managing Director for Patsystems after a career in institutional sales with Geldermann, Harris Bank, ABN AMRO, and Prudential Securities. Kenny is a native of Oak Park, Illinois, and attended the University of St. Thomas in St. Paul, Minnesota.
